"3A. (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, during the period in which the Non-party Care-Taker Government is in office, the Chief Adviser may appoint as many Special Assistants on such terms and conditions as he may deem expedient in public interest.

(ii) The Chief Adviser may assign to a Special Assistant one or more Ministries or Divisions which shall be in his direct charge as stated in rule 3(iv), and such Special Assistant shall dispose of such cases or classes of cases as he may, by order, specify.

(iii) A Special Assistant may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chief Adviser; and the Chief Adviser may, at anytime, terminate the appointment of a Special Assistant."|
